T1V to Demonstrate ThinkHub Collaboration Software With Strategic Partners at Integrated Systems Europe 2022

T1V will be showcasing ThinkHub visual collaboration software at Integrated Systems Europe 2022 - the largest AV systems integration show in the world. ISE 2022 will take place from 10-13 May 2022 at the Fira de Barcelona, Gran Via complex.

T1V, together with its strategic partners in Europe, will showcase ThinkHub visual collaboration software for hybrid collaboration at ISE22. As global organizations adjust to altered work environments and schedules across regional offices, ThinkHub delivers a flexible solution that enables hybrid and remote teams to collaborate anytime, anywhere.

Featuring a large, interactive Canvas that supports unlimited content, devices, and collaborators - ThinkHub enables synchronous and asynchronous collaboration for globally distributed teams. As companies reimagine the workplace to accommodate a newly hybrid workforce, ThinkHub provides teams a solution that works for participants connecting from the office or working from home.

“We’re thrilled to be returning to in-person, live events - where we can demo ThinkHub technology and hear directly from end users and AV partners to better understand their challenges in the return to work, says Marco Ventura, Vice President of International Sales at T1V. He continues, “these conversations are incredibly valuable to us as we model technology for the next generation of work.”

T1V will be exhibiting in Avocor Booth 2F200, The Leyard Group / Planar Booth 3D800, and U-Touch Booth 3D870. Each of these booths will feature ThinkHub collaboration software running on the latest display technology, and highlighting the flexibility of T1V ThinkHub software across different hardware deployments. Whether outfitting a huddle or small meeting space all the way up to an innovation lab or executive briefing center, ThinkHub supports collaborative spaces of all shapes, sizes, and use cases.
